

G H Raisoni University celebrated Independence Day, VC Dr. Yenki hoisted the Tri-colour

The G H Raisoni University, Amravati celebrated 72 Independence Day with patriotic fervour and gaiety. The Vice Chancellor of University, Dr. Mahesh Kumar Yenki hoisted the Tri-colour at the University premises. He addressed the gathering. Dr. Yenki motivated the student for higher education and explains the importance of education for developing our nation. To keep alive the flame of patriotism, a bouquet of cultural program was presented by students in the form of music and singing. The flag hoisting ceremony was followed by singing of the National Anthem. Dr. Vijay Rathod Dean, G H Raisoni School of Engineering and Technology was also present on this occasion.

In his address, Dr. Rathod highlighted the importance of the day. He recalled the contributions of the national our soldiers in freedom struggle. He said that each one of us needs to participate for attainment of the goals laid down by the constitution. He urged the students to follow the path shown by great leaders.

The ceremony was well attended by all Head of the Departments and Sections, officers of the University, faculty members, staff and students.

The function culminated with singing of national song 'Vande Matarm' presented by the students and distribution of sweets among all the students and staff members.