G H Raisoni University, Saikheda

It was a red letter day in the history of India when the country got her freedom on August 15, 1947. It took hundreds of years for us to break shackles of slavery. G.H. Raisoni University celebrated India's 72nd Independence Day with great enthusiasm and respect. The celebration started at 10:15 am with the hoisting of National Flag. To commemorate the sovereignty of our nation, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Dr. Rajan Welukar unfurled the tricolor flag and all the students and Staff sang the National Anthem to pay homage to the nation. The program began with the speech by the Chief Guest for the program Hon'ble VC, GHRU Dr. Rajan welukar. He emphasized on how the participation of each and every individual is necessary for the development & for the well being of the nation. He urged all the members of GHRU to go through the History of the Freedom fighters to know what they did for the nation. Then the student from BSC Agriculture Ms. Amisha Singh sang few songs dedicated to the mother India. The Drama was then presented on Gandhiji's life events by Ms. Pratiksha Sapate & her team from Agriculture Department. Many other cultural programs were performed by the students. All the students & staff members were present at the occasion in tricolors. Sweets were distributed at the end of the program.
